

Human Rights Monitoring in Ecuador

Project Title	Human Rights Monitoring in Ecuador
Project Summary	Monitor human rights in Ecuador by conducting periodic research for four congressionally-mandated reports: Human Rights, International Religious Freedom, Trafficking in Persons, and Child Labor reports.
Country	Ecuador
Agency	Department of State
DoS Office	N/A
Post	QUITO
Section	POL
Number of Interns	1

Project Description

Each year, the U.S. Mission in Ecuador writes four congressionally-mandated reports on the human rights situation in Ecuador. The Human Rights, International Religious Freedom, Trafficking in Persons, and the Child Labor reports play a significant role in influencing the U.S.-Ecuador bilateral cooperation on these issues. The intern would conduct periodic Internet-based research and report to the Embassy's political section on these issues. The political section would also ask the intern to help edit and fact-check the reports.
